Window to the soul.....

Recently I was looking through some old files and came across this image. I played around with it for a little while and this is what I came up with. The horse is a registered Morgan that was owned by my cousin and her daughter at the time. His name is Cingate Nick of Time, he's now 12 years old and had won countless championships in the midwest and has won as high as 2nd place at the World Morgan Championships and took at least a top five all of the 7 years he competed there.

Yep, I am a consultant for Tastefully Simple also. I fell in love with the products from Tastefully Simple a few years ago when I attended my sister-in-law's TS party. Soon after that I decided it would be a great way to make a little extra cash. Guess that hasn't worked too well as I seem to eat all the profits, but it is all good. As I said, I absolutely love the products and don't know what I would do without some of them. One of my favorites is the Seasoned Salt. Far different than any other seasoning salt I have ever had. If I had to pick only one TS product that I could have, it would be that. If you are having a party coming up or just want to make meals a little easier, check out the product line at <http://tinyurl.com/Tsimple>. I can also send you a product catalog.

Tastefully Simple offers a standard line of easy to make, gourmet foods. We also have a seasonal item that changes every 6 months. My suggestion is, if you find something that you really like in the seasonal line, stock up on it. There is no guarantee that they will bring it back the following year.

I have a stock of most items available at all times so if you need one or two items, just give me a call. If I don't have it, I can get it for you.

Photo Album

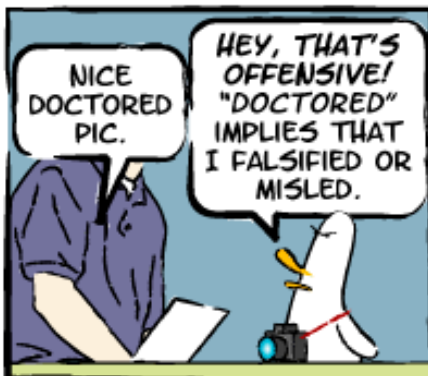

New Section! Each month I will bring you a sample of images from a photo session that I recently did. There was no way that I could choose which girls photo shoot to highlight so you get them both. Autumn is an adorable little 5 year old that I am sure has a career in entertainment! Her sister is equally striking and beautiful and a wonderful young woman. Along with being beautiful, they are also very smart. Keep up the good work ladies and good luck with your pageants this spring which these photos were taken for.

Create a photo that has more impact! How? When you photograph something, consider moving your subject out of the middle of the frame and off center. Imagine a tic-tac-toe grid in your viewfinder. Now place your subject at one of the intersections of lines. If your subject is facing a certain direction, most of the time you will want to place your subject looking into the frame. But you are allowed to break the rules if you so wish. Since most cameras focus on whatever is in the middle, remember to lock the focus on your subject before reframing.

What The Duck

Many that live deserve death. And some die that deserve life. Can you give it to them? Then be not too eager to deal out death in the name of justice, fearing for your own safety. Even the wise cannot see all ends.

My new studio prop! It is from 1900-1950 and I found it on E-Bay. (The shipping cost twice as much as the couch itself)
