PRINT OF THE MONTH

Our new fixer upper.....

On my way over to our monthly Indianhead Professional Photographers Association meeting in June I spotted an old house that was just what I was looking for for our competition that next day. I took a variety of images and liked this one best. After playing with it in Photoshop for a little bit, this is the image that I ended up with. It scored the best at competition that day earning me the top award of the Gold Arrow.

Photo Album

I just have to bring you this one. I am so honored to be able to photograph my brothers family for him. We traveled out to our mothers farm where we both grew up and found a great spot to do some fall portraits. My brother Jesse, his wife Tiffany and the kids Olivia, Joe and Ella.

There's no bad time of day to photograph fall color. As with most landscape work, the morning and late afternoon often provide the most interesting shadows. As veteran travel photographer Susan McCartney often points out, "It's best to photograph outdoors when your shadow is longer than you are."

Early morning may bring fog or mist that will provide a soft background, along with long shadows. The rich golden light just before sunset transforms not only leaves on trees, but those on the ground as well.

However, there are also opportunities mid-day. With the sun overhead, you can use backlighting to make leaves glow in your photographs, as in the photo above. Notice how the warm late afternoon light, coupled with the long shadows turns this field into a rich pattern of color.

Featured Business: MarketAmerica.com - Nanette Kohnhorst

Hello, my name is Nanette Kohnhorst and I am an Unfranchise owner with MarketAmerica.com. Unfranchise means we are standardized and systemized like a Franchise but without the pit falls of owning a traditional business. My passion is health and wellness with the Nutritional product line called Isotonix. Isotonix is a liquid form of vitamins. I am so excited about the Isotonix, my family has experienced great results. Some of the problems we faced were allergies, leg cramps, and digestive issues. Our general health has also improved and when you feel better your day goes better, right? My passion is to help others and my business allows me to do that. The statistics today show that our health and the health of our children is a real concern. My previous job was a licensed daycare provider in our home for 14 years. Children are so precious and we need to be concerned about their health at a younger age. Our kids are the future and we really need to think about how we can give them a better future. I offer customized nutrition and work one on one with individuals and families to find the right products for your needs. Another interest of mine is Transitions. It is our Low Glycemic weight management program which offers 12 week classes or on an individual basis for a Lifestyle change. Transitions is developed to teach people about low glycemic eating and how to make it a lifestyle not a diet. You would be amazed how great you would feel by eating the right foods along with some distressing, good sleep, and some exercise. Being proactive on your health now is only going to help you in the long run. I tell people all the time, You will pay now or you will pay later in life so take care of yourself now so you can enjoy the later years in your life. I hope to make a difference with helping people even if it is one person at a time. I really enjoy just getting together with people and sharing the information. I hope I have the chance to help you or someone you may know and love. I will work with you to find the right products for your needs. Call me or go to www.marketamerica.com/nanette. I can show you my rewards program and how you can get paid to shop on line and even earn products for FREE. Thank you for letting me share this information. Cell 715-432-4218
